WHO SAYS SUMMER HAS TO BE OVER? CHÂTEAU DE LA MESSARDIÈRE REMAINS OPEN FOR AN EXTENDED SEASON

Open until the end of October, Château de la Messardière, a 5-star Palace, welcomes guests to enjoy the peaceful post-season setting of the Saint-Tropez, Var region. Don't miss this opportunity to experience the region in a whole new light.

Take a break from life and enjoy a relaxing stay

Get a taste of the carefree Saint-Tropez lifestyle through the unique Château de la Messardière experience. The palace, nestled in its lush landscape, is open to guests until the end of October. Treat yourself to an Indian summer holiday for a long weekend, or an even longer getaway...

From September, you can explore Saint-Tropez and the surrounding area in total tranquillity. With the summer frenzy all wrapped up, the beaches gradually transform into a calm oasis, where you can relax and let your mind wander. Take advantage of this peaceful slow-paced season.

Opt for the “Romance” package for a tranquil long weekend

In the mood for a weekend getaway with your significant other? Or perhaps you're in need of a mid-week break? Château de la Messardière is offering the “Romance” package from 3 September to 28 October. The programme includes: a double Superior or Junior Suite room, continental breakfast to be enjoyed on a private terrace or on the Château terrace with a spectacular view overlooking the Pampelonne Bay, and a dinner for two at the gourmet restaurant “l'Acacia” (starting from €260 per person per night for a double room). Not to mention the beautiful flowers and Provence rosé welcoming you upon arrival...

This three-night stay includes the same premium services offered to all Palace guests. A free shuttle is available to guests looking to enjoy some shopping or to test the menus in downtown Saint-Tropez. For sun worshippers, it also makes a stop at Tropézina Beach, where a lounge awaits for you to laze away the day between dips in the warm sea. The Valmont & Cinq Mondes Spa also opens its doors to those seeking a moment of well-being before returning to the hustle and bustle of work.

Spending your long weekend at Château de la Messardière offers you the chance to visit the 10-hectare Mediterranean park, a real haven for nature lovers in search of peace and quiet. Our guests are in awe of the plant and animal life evolving in perfect harmony. At the end of summer, the gentle light offers a soothing back-drop for a walk. Discover something new with each step!

Major international sporting and cultural events

Music, sports, expos... the heart of Saint-Tropez beats to the rhythm of a long line of events.

From 5 September to 3 November, the Société Tropicaine des Amis de la Musique is organizing the 16th edition of the Saint-Tropez Festival d'Automne, a cultural interlude that showcases classical music on stage at the La Renaissance Cinema-Theatre located at the Place des Lices in the heart of the village.

For lovers of the open sea, the Voiles de Saint-Tropez is a must-attend event taking place from 29 September to 7 October. This incredible event is sure to put the wind in your sails, with at least 300 beautiful classic and modern boats dropping anchor in the Gulf of Saint-Tropez.

Sports enthusiasts will be gathering along the starting line on Sunday, 21 October for the La Tropicienne, which remains THE race not to be missed: 8 km or 16 km, depending on your level of fitness.

That same weekend, Château de la Messardière is hosting the Decayeux Golf Cup final and the Messardière-Decayeux Challenge, during which amateur golfers come from the world over to compete to master the green over the course of two days.

The museums are in full swing with countless exhibitions featuring painting, photography, sculpture and more... Plus, there are the Amis de l'Annonciade conferences (particularly "Bonnard-Vuillard" on Tuesday, 16 October).

As a delightful close to the summer season, Saint-Tropez merchants are organizing, from 26 to 29 October, their Grande Braderie, the perfect stop for bargain hunters!

What does the late season in Saint-Tropez have to offer? Carefree living...
